AFTER THREE YEARS IN THE MAKING, THE KALISPEL Tribe of Indians' Camas Center for Community Wellness is open to the public. The center provides many services unavailable elsewhere on the Reservation or neighboring communities. It was built to meet the health and social needs of tribal members and the surrounding communities by providing quality services to enhance the overall individual.

"The Center has been a dream of the Tribe for years. It is an exciting opportunity for the health and wellness of our people, as well as the entire community, now and in the future." says Glen Nema, Chairman of Kalispel Tribe of Indians Business Council.

The Camas Center for Community Wellness will provide a variety of services including a brand new medical center with four exam rooms, lab services, x-ray, dietician, physical therapist and chiropractic care. The center will house a dental clinic with three dental chairs; an early learning center that will serve 85 children and convenient walk-in child care will be available while guests use the clinics or fitness center.

The fitness center will have state-of-the-art equipment, a circuit training room, a 33-foot rock climbing wall and a gymnasium that can seat up to 300 people for events. The aquatic area boasts a four lane 25 meter lap pool, a water slide, two children's activity pools, a fourteen person hot tub and locker rooms with dry/wet sauna.

The teen room holds a computer lab, pool table and a full kitchen café that can accommodate up to 200 meals at a time. Additionally there is 3200 square feet of large meeting space that can be divided into three sections for separate events.

Camas Path was founded in 2001, as a community resource center providing an array of programs addressing the intellectual, emotional, physical, and cultural needs of the individual through educational training, wellness programs, and spirituality to tribal and non-tribal students and community members.

The Camas Center for Community Wellness will be open to tribal members and the entire community seven days a week, Monday through Friday, 6 a.m. to 8 p.m., Saturday 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
